The Warrior Class was created as a company of special forces who have long ago walked off any kind of map. We are exploring territories in intercession that no one else has ventured into at this level. Our journey has taken us into prayer from intimate relationship with God to unwrapping prophetic intercession and creating a community that knows how to work with the Holy Spirit, gaining freedom from dependence on others to carry them along.

We've learned enormous amounts about battles, prayer and training in 36 months. Above all else, we've encountered that every circumstance is an opportunity to love the learning..

Mind of a Saint was a great victory for TWC, for Team Brilliant and for Graham. We rose to a new levels as warriors and uncovered outrageous promises. In the end, we broke through into the reformational territory of the Mind of Christ and into doing our own Team Brilliant events. That was HUGE!

Then it was quickly on to Australia and New Zealand. Excellent intel was sent in and great prayers were prayed for the Pacific Rim. We covered it adequately as we would any other event... but we discovered that “adequate” is no longer enough. The greater focus we gave to Mind of a Saint left the fewer resources for this tour that had previously been a key target.

In the end, we feel that the enemy backed down in Anaheim, but circled back around on us in the Pacific Rim, as was evident from what Graham shared in his candid Frontline article in December. No shame. No blame. There are always spoils to take, even from the toughest experiences, however, we do not wish to make a habit of it.

I must take a moment to honor my friend and his response to the Pacific Rim tour. Graham has taught us that we can learn from any circumstance - and I've never seen him do it with more endurance, grace and focus than in this. He's been through it before. There was no disappointment nor did he request that we up our game. That was our response to make and we made it quickly. Great dialogue has followed and we feel we have a sense of where to explore next.

As usual, the enemy overplayed his hand. Now we get to make him regret that he thought his tactics in the Pacific Rim was a good idea.

Allison Bown
Director of TWC

Here's what we've learned:

Everything is connected. Every battle/event is part of the overall war in that region.

The fight has moved into a relentless level. Praying for each event, even if it is months in advance, isn't enough anymore. Time to discover more of the relentless nature of God (yahoo!) and the Holy Spirit's genius to move us from battle focus to war strategies.

Overall, we will continue our intercession in a similar manner with teams having assignments to gather intel for, however, our lens has changed as to how we work with it. With a few minor adaptations, we believe we can greatly increase our impact.

This isn't about doing more. It's about working more effectively with what we do.

Here's what we are upgrading:

Each team will now have a region and pray for it consistently. Graham's assignments in that region will always be given to your team - but now they become part of the overall assignment to pray for that region and use the events to give us greater intel on the overall war.

Looking for regional clues in our intel. We'll collect intel as before, but begin to ask you to dialogue with the Holy Spirit as to whether this is for the assignment, the region... or maybe both. If you can tell, great! If not yet, no worries. We'll all grow up in this together.

We will separate the Member Update from an Intercession Update. We have a new, more concise format for monthly TWC updates using Constant Contact. Member Updates will contain info on events, upcoming conference calls and TWC opportunities. The Intercession Update will be a separate email with Intel due date reminders, Prayer Points and Crafted Declarations. Christine Casten will contribute an intel / intercession "sound byte" to support you in your process.

Here are some keys to remember in this new focus:

The basic format remains the same. You are part of a team and your team has assignments to pray for.

This is a continuing journey, not a short term project. We don't expect to gather a complete picture of a region in a few weeks, or even months. We're going to start by using the individual assignments to get an idea of what's out there one city and area at a time.

Start with rejoicing, worshipping, giving thanks over your region. Over time, we'll collect what Jesus and the Holy Spirit are praying, the promises, prophecies and scriptures that we can declare. The enemy's strategy will come to Light. But our starting point is always worship.

Have fun - explore and experiment. You are not expected to be experts. None of us are... yet. But the HOLY SPIRIT is a genius and we're going to discover more of that!

You may or may not have a personal connection to your assigned region. We want people both from that region and outside of it. It may be a passion that develops over time or an opportunity to be a good special forces member that does your job. You are, of course, ALWAYS welcome to offer intel for any region or any assignment!!

The new groupings are a starting point only. The "regions" are pretty loosely defined due to trying to give some balance to the assignments. Some events occur close together and a few have only one team at this time. Some of you will have several months between assignments. That will be a great time to focus on intercession for the overall region!!

But it's a beginning. We'll learn and refine as we go.

When we speak of being pioneers, game-changers and champions, it's not used as a motivational phrase. We really are changing the landscape of intercession to become relational, laser sharp and powerful in a way never seen before.

Our veterans have learned to adapt and upgrade consistently in TWC. For newer members, you're part of the new upgrades that we are all experiencing. We're all getting new lenses!

Welcome to 2014!

Allison

TESTIMONIES

I asked for an upgrade in rest and peace this year. On several occasions, in new ways He showed up as wisdom, strength, provider and comforter. How I needed Him, and how He filled me and saved my sanity!

Rick Roberts

I see 2014 as a year of tremendous hope, opportunities and promise as we bring the Kingdom of God to earth.

Bring it on Jesus!
Marian Vaine

One aspect of Papa's nature I encountered in a new way was the courage of God in all situations. The way I overcame fear was by singing love songs to Him. When I started singing love songs, I witnessed intimidation run and hide as I was singing. I heard the wonderful Holy Spirit say to me, "I love to hear you sing!"

Tony Hughes

During worship I have experienced the presence of the Holy Spirit, and I have a greater sense of God's plans and purpose for the future.

Ed Pelletier

I feel like I have been feasting on His goodness which is my upgrade. I am in awe of God's provision for me. This has been a life-changing season!

Raylene Berryman

The Spirit is renewing this aspect of the nature of God: He is Lord of messages about treasure. Highlighted for many including myself.

Kathy Riley

During this time of worship; the LORD updated the prescription of my lens; as He let drops fall with in me day by day enlightening with insight.

Maricela Damerow

During the ebb, I finished up my full-time working career. One of the things I looked forward to during semi-retirement was having extended time with the Lord. He did not disappoint. During one such time He revealed His great vastness, and yet how wonderfully thoughtful He was towards me. He just wanted to be with me in silence, spending time in silence, like you can do with someone you know very well. From that time on, you are closer to the other and refreshed.

Lisa Hoover
Vanguards Team Leader

What fun it is when He speaks to us through the "natural" craziness of life! As I woke up one morning to missing glasses, it didn't take me very long to tumble to the thought that perhaps I need a new lens in something! Lots of awesome prophetic input from friends, though not one of them disagreed with my need of a lens change. . . :) my reading glasses went missing as well – yup I'm thinking the unpacking of this should be fun!

Kelly Megonigle
Watchman Team Leader

I finally got some identity statements written. I am so fired up and ready to conquer the world! I am still trying to wrap my head around these statements and take them deeper, but I'm so excited!

Janice Riley

During the ebb I discovered the faithfulness of God to use goodness and favor to impact others.

LeAnn Hildreth

I have been affectionately addressing Abba Father as 'my God of Mysterious Ways'.

The stillness that continues to grow in me often chooses the serenity of complete silence as its expression of awe. I am finding silence to be truly golden and surprisingly relational!

Joanie Falk

This ebb was full of growing, stretching, learning and resting. I have complete confidence in how He wants to relate with me. It is through Joy! Faith! Love! And Learning!

Juna Light Stayner

Somewhere along this ebb I have come into a place of intimacy with Him where I wear His presence like a comfortable favorite garment of someone I love, that I can wrap around me and breathe in His essence in a heart beat. I don't know when that shift occurred but I am ever so grateful for it.

Christine Taylor

This worship ebb I entered a time of hiddenness, why are we surprised when the Father does this :):). Remaining faithful to resting in the Father's arms I learnt more about a deeper faith worship of Him. I have emerged with fresh impartation of who he wants me to be in 2014, a deeper level of knowledge of his faithfulness and a complete trust through that hiddenness not found in the times of manifestation. I have a sense of excitement for 2014.

Therese Jeffs

As I have meditated on Living the Upgraded Life, I find that my generosity towards others is increasing. This delights both me and Him!

Marie Matlin

While resting in the Lord, I was delighted to find that if I journal when the Lord starts speaking to me I receive far more from Him than if I just listen for Him to speak. This seems to work even when I am seeing pictures, as He explains them far better than before I started doing this. It really is a delight to discover His ways!

Marilyn Colburn

For me, TWC is the perfect environment for those who want to go higher. The Lord asked me during the ebb, to prepare to live in a higher place. He showed me how I am to apply a fundamental principle in order to prepare for my next assignment as a son.

I saw that maturity embraces diligence. I saw how those who are running the race in this way, find themselves properly prepared for when the next assignment or upgrade arrives. The Holy Spirit helped me to see that God requires great diligence from each of his captains. I have been shown the next level He wants me to live on and also the focus I need to prepare for the experience. Graham's teaching, Living on a Higher Place being a highly instructive commentary for me on discovering these things in God.

What's New in 2014?

Lori Morrow - Bookkeeper

New "Donate" button

Several TWC members as well as those outside of TWC have asked if they can make a donation. Many of you have been very generous on our TWC Training Days, but others who couldn't attend wanted to know what their options were for financial giving beyond their monthly fee.

Check out the new "Donate" button on the TWC Website. It is located in the bottom, orange bar and will take you to a page with all the information.

All of you give generously in your time, passion and monthly fees. We do not require more from you, but we always want to leave open doors for God to bless us as HE directs.

Welcome our new financial champion! Lori Morrow

Lori Morrow has been our bookkeeper since June and helped us begin the covering corporation of Altitude, which houses TWC. Starting a corporation that was separate from Brilliant Perspectives was daunting, but she was part of the genius that got us off the ground.

Anyone who can make finances easy to understand for me deserves a medal... and she has!!

Some of our most interesting fights were right at the start and Lori jumped right in and fought with us. She expressed her love and support for who TWC is with generous help that went far beyond what was required. Administratively, she is a gift from heaven and has become a friend.

Teresa Morrison has known Lori for several years and their partnership in TWC finances has been exceptional and proven. Teresa will now oversee our finances and Lori will assume the day to day operations.

Lori now becomes the one who will follow up on TWC payments, be sure your account is clearly explained to you and help you as needed.

If you have issues with your auto-deductions or payments, you will now be hearing directly from Lori, not Teresa. If you have questions about your account, contact Lori.
